5. The faculties, who travel in the college bus daily, were informed to monitor the activities of the senior students in the bus and record the observations in the log register kept in the buses. First-year students were seated in front seats, faculty members in the middle and senior students were seated after faculty members, thereby creating fearless travel for first-year students.

6. All the Anti-ragging squad members were involved effectively in providing safety and comfort to the newly joined students. The teams visiting the hostel interacted with first-year students individually and helped them to solve their academic/personal problems (if any).

7. Anti-ragging form cum affidavit is circulated among the newly-admitted students in the session 2022-23. Every student is made to sign an elaborate oath, pledging never to indulge in or support any sort of ragging activities in the College. It is also made clear that any ragging activity in the College will be severely penalized using legal actions.

To ensure a conducive academic atmosphere for newly joined students both in college and Hostel premises the measures have been discussed in the Anti-Ragging Committee meeting.
